"Our focus, your employees"

Let our team work as your human resource department to move you ahead.

What makes Co-H.R. different?

Does your company's Human Resource department help you provide the best solution for your workforce issues?

As a premier human resource consulting firm, CO-H.R.'s consultants offer legal-based and compliance solutions that help meet your human resource needs. Our consultants deliver the best solutions because we listen, analyze, and address the challenges our clients have to face.

Whether you are a start up company looking for a way to enhance your HR department to achieve economies of scale or an established company recognizing the need to focus on your core business, CO-H.R. can deliver a comprehensive solution for your human resource needs.

Together we can champion the winning solution for your workforce.

Here is why CO-H.R. can offer you more:

- ❑ We work with you to help apply the best human resource solutions for your company.
- ❑ CO-H.R.'s strategic alliances with some of the industry's top service providers bring you best-in-class administrative capabilities that you can rely on. This allows you to spend more time managing your business.
- ❑ CO-H.R. is a full service human resource department with a comprehensive approach that allows you to reach your workforce goals faster. Unlike an employee leasing organization, with CO-H.R. you don't have to wait on a group approach for a one size fits all solution for your employees.

- ❑ Our orientation and communication make the transition smooth and seamless - your company, along with our experienced team as your human resource department.
- ❑ Our employee self-service and employer self-service web-access provides personalized access to employee related data. This coupled with our Digital Paper Storage (dps) platform can provide secured access and administration to employee documents via the web instantly. This places timely decisive information at your fingertips.
- ❑ We provide timely accurate reporting for all human resource compliance filings. We will work directly with your CPA and provide them with monthly and quarterly reporting.

Premium Focused Service

Whether you have hundreds of employees to consider or just a few, CO-H.R. can provide a human resource solution customized to your needs. We effectively handle your human resource administration and consulting issues while helping you stay focused on your core business. Ask your CO-H.R. consultant for assistance on structuring the best human resource solution for your business.
